#236

 We learn this mitzvah from Parshas Mishpatim: (שמות כא"ח)

וְכִי יִרְיֹבֵן אֲנָשִׁים
וְהִכָּה אִישׁ אֶת רֵעֵהוּ

Today's mitzvah is the same as yesterday's: that if a person makes someone else get hurt, he needs to pay him to make up for what he did.

 The details of this mitzvah are explained in Mishnayos & Gemara: Mesechta Bava Kama perek Ches

Rambam: Hilchos Chovel U'Mazik

PEREK DALED

This perek talks about kinds of people that have different halachos if they got hurt — like a Mommy who had a baby inside, or if someone hurts their parents, or if a servant was hurt. The halachos of what needs to be paid can be different for each kind of person.

PEREK HEY

The Rambam teaches us that it is asur to even pick up your hand against another Yid. Someone who does is called a rasha, even if he didn't hurt him! We also learn that a person should be mochel the person who hurt him if he asks for forgiveness.

PEREK VOV

This perek starts the halachos about damaging someone else's THINGS (not about hurting the person, like we were learning before).
