 We learn this mitzvah from Parshas Mishpatim: (שמות כ"ח)

 We learn this mitzvah from Parshas Masei: (במדבר לה:לא) וְלֹא תִקַּח כֹּפֶר לְנַפְשׁ רֵצִיחַ אֲשֶׁר הוּא רָשָׁע לְמוֹת

The Beis Din is not allowed to take money from someone who killed on purpose, in order not to punish him the way the Torah tells us to.

 The details of this mitzvah are explained in Mishnayos & Gemara: Mesechta Makos

Rambam: Hilchos Chovel U'Mazik, Hilchos Rotzeiach U'Shmiras HaNefesh

PEREK ZAYIN

In this perek we learn about kinds of damage that you can't see — like making something tomei, where it doesn't look different. We also learn about doing something that makes something get damaged, like moving a pillow away when a glass is falling, and when someone isn't sure how much damage he did.

PEREK CHES

In this perek we learn the din of a moser — someone who tells on a Yid to the government so they will take him or his money. It is a VERY BIG aveira.

PEREK ALEF

Now we learn the two mitzvos in today's Sefer Hamitzvos and the BIGGEST MITZVAH a person can do — to save the life of another Yid. The Rambam tells us that if a person saves another Yid it is like he saved the WHOLE world!

The Rebbe tells us that the same is true of helping a Yid to do a mitzvah and giving every child a good chinuch. It is also like saving their life, which the Rambam says is like saving the WHOLE world!
