 We learn this mitzvah from Parshas Behar: (ויקרא כה:יד)

וְכִי תִמְכְּרוּ מִמְכָּר לְעַמִּיתְךָ

When we sell something to another Yid, or buy something from another Yid, we have to do it the Torah way! There are many halachos that we need to follow to make sure we are doing it right.

(We learned this mitzvah many times before, but since there is no special mitzvah for this set of halachos in Rambam, we review it again.)

 The details of this mitzvah are explained in Mishnayos & Gemara: Mesechta Kiddushin perek Alef, Mesechta Bava Metziah perakim Daled and Ches, and Mesechta Bava Basra perakim Gimmel, Daled, Hey, Vov and Zayin

Rambam: Hilchos Shluchim VeShutfim

PEREK BEIS

One of the things we learn in this perek is that someone who is under a certain age can't be a shliach. If someone sends a kid as a shliach, it's his own fault if something gets broken or lost!

Of course, even a kid can be a shliach of the Rebbe! In fact, they used to call the Kinus Hashluchim for kids "Yaldei Hashluchim," "the kids of shluchim." But based on what the Rebbe said about the special koach and shlichus that children have, they realized that they should change it to "Tze'irei Hashluchim" — the young shluchim! They're not just children of shluchim, they're shluchim themselves!

PEREK GIMMEL

This perek teaches us about how a person can send a shliach to argue for him in Beis Din. (That's like a lawyer.)

PEREK DALED

In this perek, we start learning about how people can become partners in business.
