We learn this mitzvah from Parshas Emor: (ויקרא כא:י"א)

וְעַל כָּל נִפְשֹׁת מֵת לֹא יִבֹּא

Today's mitzvah is that the Kohen Gadol has to be careful not to move or touch something that can give him Tumas Meis. (That sounds just like yesterday's mitzvah, that a Kohen Gadol should not become Tomei, but the Rambam shows us how really they are two separate mitzvos — not to be in a place that can make him tomei, and not to touch or move something that can make him tomei!)

Rambam: Hilchos Aveil

PERAKIM VOV, ZAYIN, AND CHES

Today's Rambam talks about the halachos of a person who is mourning for someone who passed away.

Very soon when Moshiach will come, there will be no more reason for Hashem to take a person's neshama away from their Guf. In fact, Hashem will return every neshama to their proper guf with Techiyas Hameisim!
